PREFACE.

In presenting to the attention of our readers and patrons the sixth edition of the Melrose Directory, we simply wish to say we have made a careful canvass of the town and trust the list will be found complete and up to date.

We find in this city many of the people are moving and changing constantly. While the book was in press there were changes taking place.

The book (except the street list) was printed in Melrose by A. W. Dunton Printing Co., who have the reputation of doing first-class work.

Our advertisers consist of the leading merchants and business men of Melrose. We trust the host of people using the book will read their announcements.

We have sold a goodly number of books at a low price to the families and are pleased so many find it indispensable. Those economical and grasping people who get along without it or use an old issue or some other book which requires much time to find a name are to be pitied.

We are glad to notice an increase in the population. The houses and tenements that were vacant two years ago are now filled up.

We have added 1,837 new names to our list and have published the list and dates of deaths of the males.

Hoping to issue the book again in two years, we remain,

Respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.

Nov. 1, 1903.
